“They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.”

Isaiah 11:9

(This column and these notes are intended to enhance our worship with some inspiration and information.)

You are invited to get a Christmon from the ushers to bring forward and place on the tree.

Music for The Time of Preparation today is a Celtic strings rendition of "People Look East" which we will also be singing during the service. This is a song of Advent which invites us to watch, through the signs of nature, for the coming of God in our midst.

Advent, a season of four Sundays, opens the church year. The observance of Advent originated in France during the 4th century. The word, Advent, consists of two Latin words: ad - venire, "To come to." Advent's message is that God in Christ is coming to the world. Advent is therefore a season of preparation for us, for nature, for the world as we celebrate Christ's coming and pray for Christ's return. "Come, Lord Jesus, Come!"

the Advent wreath, with its four candles representing Hope, Peace, Joy and Love serves to remind us of the coming into the world a light which will dispel the darkness. Each week in Advent we will welcome a different family to share the Advent wreath reading.

The Second Sunday of Advent is the traditional Sunday that speaks of not only our preparations, but the preparation of all the earth for Jesus coming. It is our "Green" Sunday. Today we sing "Joy to the World" as an Advent Carol that pronounces "Joy to the World the Lord is Come, Let Earth receive her king. Let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing." As we sing we will complete the decoration of this place with the processional of poinsettias.

HIGHLANDS UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CELEBRATION OF WORSHIP

December 4, 2016 – 2nd Sunday of Advent

MUSIC AND TIME OF PREPARATION

(Take this opportunity to pause for a moment and pray for God's presence among us today, our worship leaders, those who worship with you and for yourself.)

CHIMING THE HOUR

PRELUDE AND BRINGING THE LIGHT

"Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming" Brahms

*THE CALL TO WORSHIP AND LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH "The Skipper Family"

Listen for God's word as it comes from the great prophet Isaiah inviting us to follow the light: Isaiah 11:1-9 says:

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the LORD shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. His delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Sisters and brothers, come this day; and let us worship in the light of God as we pray:

Today, Lord, we light candles of hope and peace.

May they burn brightly and warmly in our hearts and guide us through these days of Advent to our place beside you at your birth.

We have seen the shoot from the stump of Jesse and the new living branch from ancient roots coming forth in the midst of nature to remind us of your creating power, God of Advent. Today, as we rest in the hope that is ours in you, we look with eager anticipation for the gift of your peace to spread like the limbs of a mighty tree until all are covered by your grace. Amen.

* ADVENT POINSETTIA PROCESSIONAL HYMN NO. 40 "JOY TO THE WORLD"

* - Those who are comfortable will please stand

PASSING THE PEACE (please remain standing)

May the peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

(At this time you are invited to share a sign of peace: a hug, a handshake, a kiss...)

CHORAL RESPONSE "People Look East" (vs. 1)

"People, look east. The time is near Of the crowning of the year.

Make your house fair as you are able, Trim the hearth and set the table.

People, look east and sing today:

Love the guest is on the way

"SEEK FORGIVENESS AND SHARE GOD'S GIFTS"

CONFESSION AND PARDON (Responsive)

Even as we celebrate the coming one with decorations and living reminders of creations song of Advent, we find ourselves looking beyond the moment we are in for moments to come. Let us confess how the distractions of our lives keep us from knowing, and living, the true meaning of this season. Please join me, as we pray saying,

Forgive us, living God, that in the beauty of this place decked out to welcome you, in the music in the stores and the jingles in the air,
we do not hear the songs of the angels;
that in the hustle and bustle of every day and every one,
we do not see the child standing alone in tears,
the family struggling for existence,
the outcasts pushed further away from hope;
that in the pitches over the airwaves and online,
we do not find the peace, the hope, the joy,
all the gifts you offer to your children.

We want to decorate our very beings with symbols of your love, so we ask,

Pour out your tender mercy upon us,
God of blessings, and finish what you have started in us. As we share in your grace, may we also share in the work of the gospel of peace, of hope, of reconciliation begun in the birth of Jesus, our Brother, our Savior. Amen.

CHORAL RESPONSE "Good Christian Friends" (No. 28 vss. 3)

"Good Christian friends, rejoice, With heart, and soul, and voice;
Now ye need not fear the grave: Jesus Christ was born to save!
Calls you one and calls you all To gain the everlasting hall.
Christ was born to save! Christ was born to save!"

In our final 'gathering act' we "Pass the Peace" as an act of caring, welcome, and mutual love. In any language, the love of God is translated into peace as we join hands and hearts together. We are re-gathered as a worshipping community with the first verse of the Advent Hymn, "People Look East"

Corporate Confession:

In the Presbyterian and Reformed Tradition, we do not offer individual confession save for that which we offer in our silent prayers. Our prayer today reminds us that we are not simply individuals but citizens of the world seeking the kingdom of God. Our prayer and the "Assurance of Forgiveness" echo themes present in our Epistle lesson for the day.

Today's Offertory Anthem is "Creation Will Be At Peace" which echoes the theme of Isaiah 11:1-10.

The 'heart' of our worship which is "The Proclamation of God's Word."

(We stand for the reading of the gospel in a very old tradition of the church. In response to the Word read there is the 'preaching of the word for our living today.' This includes words for 'the young church' and all who gather. On Communion Sundays we invite the young church to remain with us. There is a nursery for the youngest of us.

The remainder of the service is "Sharing Our Response to God" which is our opportunity to respond to the Word read, preached and heard. Which today also includes our gathering at the Table for the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Our Hymn of Preparation For the Table, Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence," is one of the oldest hymns of the Church. It has taken this place in the liturgy, leading to the Sacrament, for centuries. Today we will sing a single verse as an approach to the table and the remainder of the verses are part of our "Great Prayer."

On the first Sunday of each month we are invited to gather at the table for the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

When God breaks into us, 'the wolf shall dwell with the lamb...and they will not hurt or destroy in all my Holy Mountain. All heaven and nature will sing of the power of God's redeeming love.

Thanks Be To God

"LET ALL MORTAL FLESH"

"Let all mortal flesh keep silence, And with fear and trembling stand;
Ponder nothing earthly minded, For with blessing in His hand,
Christ our God to earth descendeth, Our full homage to demand."

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

With blessing in hand Christ our God to earth descends and comes to us at the table.

We gather in his presence here at his invitation our full homage to offer him.

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

May the God of Advent wonder be with you.

And also with you.

People of God, lift up your hopeful hearts.

We lift them to the One who fills us with all joy and peace.

Blessed be the One who comes to speak for the poor, to set free those imprisoned by despair.

May the glory of the One who welcomes all to this

Table fill our sisters and brothers throughout creation.

God of Wonder:

your Spirit did not rest, but transformed chaos into creation, the mountains crying 'Glory!' with one voice, the hills echoing the glad refrain. You welcomed us into your garden of peace and hope, but we flocked to sin and death, those entertainers who seduce us with their temptations and tricks. The prophets were sent to help us understand our brokenness, but we turned our backs when they sang of your hopes for us. And so, you prepared Jesus to come to us, so we might know the very nearness of your kingdom. Therefore, we would join our voices with those of every time and place, who sing of the glory of your world:

(sung) "King of kings, yet born of Mary, As of old on earth He stood, Lord of lords, in human vesture, In the body and the blood, He will give to all the faithful His own self for heavenly food."

Holy are you, God of all creation, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Child, who became our servant to save us. He came, so that those who could only speak in anger to one another, might sing songs of peace at your Table. He came, to shower the living waters of grace upon our hope-parched souls. He came, to sweep death from the bottoms of our hearts, so we might dance in your life forever.

Even now, surrounded by the love and light in this place decorated in your honor and for your glory, even as we prepare with all creation to celebrate his birth, we ache for his return, we sing of that mystery we call faith:

(sung) "Rank on rank the host of heaven Spreads its vanguard on the way, As the Light of Light descendeth From the realms of endless day, That the powers of hell may vanish As the darkness clears away."

Come to us in these moments, God of Advent, pouring your Spirit upon the bread and the cup that we might be drenched by your grace and peace. Then, when we are filled with your justice and righteousness, send us forth into the wilderness of despair and loneliness, to bring joy and hope; to be servants to the poor; to be voices for those silenced by oppression; to become a bumper crop of reconciliation in a world strewn with the stumps from the violence of war and fear.

Then, when all time has ended, all pain and hurt is gone, you will welcome everyone to your Table, where we can sing 'Glory!' with one voice to Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, God in Community, Holy in One.

(sung) "At His feet the six-winged seraph; Cherubim, with sleepless eye, Veil their faces to the presence, As with ceaseless voice they cry, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Lord Most High!"

Today we offer our "Great Prayer of Thanksgiving" in great hopes for peace that comes in the communion of God's creation as together we wait in Advent anticipation for his return. The Lord's table is open to all who confess faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

"The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving" is shared from the table and acts as a 'blessing' or 'grace' as we gather. This prayer recounts God's gracious creative power, our sinfulness and Christ's coming to redeem us and make us whole.

The 'table' is not an altar for sacrifice, but a table upon which are symbols of Christ's body and blood given freely for us. We believe that Christ is the 'lamb of God' sacrificed for us once and for all on the cross.

It is in Christ that we have HOPE for the PEACE that is to come in the fulfillment of Christ promise and presence with us.

The Words of Institution area scriptural evidence of the sharing of the Lord's Supper in the very early church. "Instituted" means in this case to be established as the norm for future use. These words with some variation have been used throughout the history of the church to bring the present-day table into the context of Jesus' last supper with his disciples.

Today we will come forward down the center aisle, receive communion by 'intinction' which means we will take a piece of bread and dip it in the cup to commune. Elders will be stationed on the right or left. After pausing to commune you will return down the side aisles. Please pause for a moment at the blanket stand to offer prayers over the prayer blanket being dedicated today.

Our parting hymn is the remainder of "People Look East" which embraces the theme of our joining all of creation in preparing for the Advent of our God. During the 4th verse, which speaks of the coming light, we will light the Christmas tree.

[Thanks to all who have helped to make God's house a welcoming reminder of the way all creation sings to God's glory in the Advent promise of the one who comes to us.]

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

WELCOME TO HIGHLANDS AND THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT. Traditionally the second Sunday of Advent, which is Peace Sunday, has the theme of the coming together of heaven and earth in a harmony that leads to peace. All of God's creatures, all of God's creation, all of God's people find their commonality in the coming of the one who redeems everything and brings in a new era of peace when "The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them... They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea." We begin with our annual Poinsettia Processional as we continue our decorations of the sanctuary for this Advent and Christmas season. Thanks to those who helped make this place vibrant with the promise of 'heaven and nature' singing together!

OUR ANNUAL 'ALTERNATIVE GIFTS MARKET' OPENS TODAY in the Dining Hall after worship. There will be many items for you to consider from special causes like Heifer Project, our own missions (Family Promise, Michah's Backpack, ACS, and more), and sale items from Beads For Life. For your special attention we have 28 children in the Grace of Mercy orphanage in Haiti that we would love to sponsor for $20.00 per month. We have pictures and some information for each child. What an amazing gift that will 'keep on giving' in the lives of these children whose living has been disrupted once again by Hurricane Matthew. This is the poorest nation in the Western Hemisphere and certainly these are Jesus' own 'least of these my brothers, sisters and children. Please find it in your heart to sponsor a child, or two, or three. You will make a huge difference in their living.

OUR PYC IS DOING THEIR ANNUAL 'CHRISTMAS MISSION PROJECT' TODAY AT 5 p.m. They will be purchasing gifts and items of clothing for the children of Haiti. Want to help? We'll be glad to take your donations. (See Laura or Dr. Dave.)

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY is Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. and on Sunday mornings during Sunday School. Join us! Don't forget that we will be receiving "WHITE GIFTS" at any time under the Dining Hall tree and dedicating them on December 18 during our "Birthday Party for Baby Jesus." These gifts of small toys, books, games, and other items like warm things to wear are distributed to Arlington Community Services and Haiti for their use throughout the year.
